Dear PYP Families,

As indicated on the school calendar, PYP reports for Term 1, are due to come out on January 29th, 2010.

Due to a recent change in the structure of PYP by the IB, our current school reports will need to be reformatted to indicate phases. The PYP staff has already begun work on the new format but this will not be complete in time for this year's reports.

Therefore, Term 1 reports will be replaced by a Parent/teacher consultation which will take place on Wednesday, January 27th. The consultations will be in the usual format, parents will have the opportunity to sign up to meet with all teachers for 10 minutes. The consultations will start at 15.00.

Due to this change in reporting format, we strongly encourage all parents to meet with all teachers, in order to ensure a full holistic picture of your child's effort and progress this term. In addition to the regular consultation meeting, all teachers will have an assessment sheet, indicating the objectives covered in Term 1, showing your child's progress and achievement. The homeroom teachers will make a copy of these sheets, including all subject areas, and will send these home a week after the consultations. These are records for your file.

We thank you for your continued support in PYP. Please see me or your class teacher with questions or comments.

Kind regards,

Karen Johansen

Vice-Headmaster HIS
