

NGG ID PTA Weekly Bulletin No.1. October 13th 2011

Dear International Families,

Welcome to the first edition of our new weekly bulletin! Hope that you like this fresh and regularly updated format. "The Cirkel" newsletter was gently put to bed last week. More details in the final edition at this link:

<http://www.ngg.dk/side4823.html>

If you feel that you could help contribute to this new bulletin venture, then please step my way. I am aware that there are a few attachments to plough through with this edition, but I anticipate that this won't always be so and you will receive just one document in future from both Karen and myself.

Also, if you have items that you wish to contribute to the bulletin, published next on Thursday the 27th October, then please contact me beforehand at:

heathergartside@gmail.com

Cheers and have a great vacation!

Heather

- We wish you a truly great autumn vacation, and hope that you find the information that Stine has made available for you in her attached document useful; it's bulging with great things to do if you will be spending your time here in Denmark. Thank you Stine! Our new "What's on" correspondent.

- Also attached is a document on the role of the PTA that I have created as a request from our last very productive "Parent Networking Meeting." This will be posted on the website once it meets with your approval
- The final attachment is for art classes after school at NGG ID
- The October "Parent Networking Meeting" will be held on Wednesday the 26th October in Svanereden. Hope that you can make it!
- Jo Jobling and her dynamic Events group would like to tell you all that Halloween tickets will now also be on sale on Monday the 24th and Tuesday the 25th of October. The party is on the 28th, so perhaps it is wise to email Jo direct to reserve your kid's tickets and avoid any disappointed little devils!

Revathi is trained in Indian Classical music - Carnatic for 10 years under the tutelage of Smt. Mahalakshmi Ramachandran, a Gold Medalist in MA Music from Stella Maris in Chennai, India. She has given concerts in India and also sung in Copenhagen a few times. She has been living in Denmark for 2 years now.

- And finally, a message for Jenny Uhel for an upcoming trip with the Culture club to see a great exhibition of the art of Toulouse Lautrec:

Hello everyone,

TOULOUSE-LAUTREC at Statens Museum for Kunst Copenhagen

17. september 2011 - 19. februar 2012

Jenny translates: "Get carried away in a swirling world of pleasure in theaters, circuses, brothels, cafes and dancing palaces. Enter the world of city actors of all sexes and classes and meet Henri de Toulouse Lautrecs exhibition of graphic and striking comments on this modern life. "

We'll meet on Friday 28th October at 09:00 at school and try to catch a train from Kokkedal station around 09:15. Parking is scares at the station, we'll carpool. As always, bring a friend, invite others and send this invitation along. The more the merrier, they also have a nice place for lunch or a drink at the museum)

Let me know if you want to come along and/or if you need a lift to the station, email or call. jvandenpanhuyzen@gmail.com
